1. SOLAS NEWS

- * The three SOLAS Implementation Plans (one for each of the SOLAS Foci) will be completed at the end of October and posted on the SOLAS website very soon. Check www.uea.ac.uk/env/solas.
- * The second edition of the hardcopy SOLAS newsletter is in press, so watch your mailbox. This edition contains contributions centered around SOLAS Focus 2.
- * SOLAS Science 2007: The next SOLAS Open Science Conference will held in Xiamen, China, 6–9 March 2007. More details to come.

2. CRUISE OPPORTUNITY

- * Cruise opportunity for a junior level scientist as co-chief scientist and 2 graduate students on two CTD/hydro/carbon/tracer/ADCP cruise legs for the U.S. Global Ocean Carbon and Repeat Hydrography Program from Tahiti to Hawaii then Hawaii to Kodiak, AK in early spring 2006. See: <http://ushydro.ucsd.edu>

3. CONFERENCE INFORMATION

- * EGU General Assembly Meeting– 2–7 April 2006– Vienna, Austria
A special session on SOLAS will be chaired by LiseLotte Sorensen (Denmark) and Veronique Garcon (France). Many additional sessions of relevance to SOLAS are planned. Abstract deadline is January 16th.
See : <http://meetings.copernicus.org/egu2006/>.
- * CALL for SESSIONS: Global Environmental Change: Regional Challenges
An Earth System Science Partnership (ESSP), Beijing, November 9–12 2006.
Deadline: 30 November 2005. The ESSP conference programme will emphasize plenary sessions. If you are interested in organizing a conference session please submit a completed call for sessions form, which can be downloaded from either one of the following ESSP Conference websites:

4. JOBS

- * Science communicator for the International Geosphere–Biosphere Programme (IGBP)– Stockholm, Sweden. See: www.igbp.net
- * ESF Vacancy – Project Assistant for the Marine Board Unit– Strasbourg
See www.esf.org
- * Half–time Scientific Programmer and Data Manager– British Antarctic Survey, Cambridge, UK
See: <http://www.antarctica.ac.uk/Employment/vacancies/job.php?id=415>
- * Five new positions in oceanography/climate science– University of New South Wales, Sydney, Australia. See :
<http://www.maths.unsw.edu.au/~matthew/jobs.pdf>
- * Tenure Track Faculty Position (Open Rank) – Department of Earth and Atmospheric Sciences/University at Albany, SUNY. See :
<http://hr.albany.edu/content/vacancy.asp>.
- * Project Researcher in physical oceanography– Norwegian Polar Institute
See : <http://npiweb.npolar.no/>
- * Assistant Professor– Texas A&M University (<http://www.met.tamu.edu>)
Applicants are sought whose research specialization is in applied meteorology or in areas of interface between different branches and fields (synoptic meteorology and weather forecasting; air–land–sea interaction, including applications to boundary–layer meteorology; and modeling of air pollution, aerosols, and other chemical or cloud–scale processes). Contact jswartz@tamu.edu or 979–458–0559.
- * WCRP post doctoral researcher– School of Ocean and Earth Science and Technology (SOEST), Honolulu, Hawaii. See :
