Support for young European scientists at the SOLAS Conference, Xiamen

To be announced soon, the ACCENT program has generously provided partial support for young scientists / early career scientists to attend the SOLAS conference in Xiamen. Support will be considered for those participating from the scientific areas of:
Aerosols, Remote Sensing from Satellites, and International Collaboration. Please contact jeff.hare@uea.ac.uk for information.

Look for Issue 4 of the SOLAS newsletter in October.

The Third SOLAS International Summer School will be held 22nd October–3rd November, 2007.

Publishing a SOLAS paper? Please include the word “SOLAS” within the abstract and acknowledgements. This helps the IPO track science results within SOLAS.
